Fearless Dating After Divorce

Hi Amy,

At Back on Top, we absolutely love boymom designs! On our national book tour in St. Louis we found your stylish tees at a classy boutique, Susan Lynn. What a find! Ginger, author of Back on Top, bought one on the spot and hasn't looked back. Ginger, a boymom herself, couldn't resist the concept. Being a boymom is quite an adventure and what better way to celebrate it than with your comfy tees?

Since returning to Atlanta, Ginger has bought three tees for some other boymom's in her neighborhood. They're a hit! we love boymom!

We even took some fun pics at the lake last weekend. Thanks so much for sharing your paradigm shift with the world!

*All the best,
Ginger & the
